THE Singapore Free Press Bays :- There is nothing at present to lead to the impression that Sir Cecil Smith will not return to the Colony in November at the expiry of his leave. With health, and unless some unusual chance of promotion offers in the interim, we may expect the Governor to retain his appointment until its tenure closes, which will be in 1892. As a matter of fact, though there would be an emineut fitness in the appointment, it would mein in one way a secrifice of Sir Cecil Smith's change the Governor-ship of the Straits Settlements for the Embassy at Pekin, unless the status of that were to be raised.

WB understand that the Board of Trade have decided to place a light-ship off Cape Guardafui-that point on the East African Coast which juts out to form the Gulf of Aden-and that no time will be lost in making the necessary arrangements. ship will be sent out from home, and will be anchored off the Cape, whilst a special tender-ship, also fitted with complete lighting apparatus, will be stationed at Aden. The object of this arrangement will be that, should the light-ship experience extremely heavy weether and be driven away from her an horage, or receive other damage, the tender-ship at Aden will be able, as soon as the absence of the regular light-ship is reported, to take her place. As the scheme will be a costly one, very urgent representations must have been made to the Board of Trade regarding the necessity for lighting the Cape, and the light-ship will, no doubt, be placed in such a position that it can be seen by vessels proceeding up and down the Gulf of Aden, as well as those which, homeward-bound in the south-west monsoon, frequently go south and come up between Cape Guardafui and Socotra.

THE SANITARY BOARD.

A meeting of the anitary Board was held this afternoon. Hon S. Brown, Surveyor General, presided, and there were also present :- Major-General Gordon, Hon. N G. Mitchell Inues. Mr Wong Shing and Dr Cantlie, and Mr H. McCallum, Sanitary Superintendent.

TYPEOID AND TYPEUS A report by the Colonial Surgeon was laid on the table with regard to the alleged case of typhus. The patient was seen by two Chinese doctors and the certificate of nese had always been allowed to fertilise death was granted by Dr Soares who had never seen the lad. He intended to certify the death as having been caused by typhoid, instead of typhus.

Such a stench was very unhealthy in a hot country and if it continued they would have to give up their

The Sanitary Superintendent sail the thing complained of was the usual mode of the Chinese of manuring gardens with fluid night soil. The lot was no longer occupied as a garden lot but as a rural lot and the owners, he held, had no right to carry on operations in the shape of cultivation that were an offence to their neighbours.

Dr Cantlie said he understood that Mr McCallum wrote about this some time ago at the instigation of some of the residents in the neighbourhood, and his impression was that the roply was to the effect that the occupants of the neighbouring houses themselves must prosecute, the Sanitary Board having no power. He believed that question, as to the Board's power, was to have been raised by Mr Ede if he had been present.

The Secretary said section 18 of the Ordinance provided that on the receipt of information as to the existence of a nuisance, and on the Board being satisfied that a unisance did exist a notice should be served on the person by whose act the nuisance arose or continued, requiring him to abate it within a specified time. THE BRITISH MINISTER AT PEKING. To the Editor of the 'CHINA MAIL.'

Sra,-I have been accustomed to hear the British growl at the softness and forbearance of our Minister at Peking and to sympathise with it more or less in silence but an article in a local Chinese paper" of suggestive of very different and much more plassing reflections. The kindly and appreciative feeling manifested towards England, tie frank acknowledgement of all the advantages China has derived from Euroropean intercourse and commerce, the earnest wish to see the same extended in peaceful ways to every part of the empire, the spontaneous confession that before intercourse was forced upon China she was like a frog in a well or a tiger in a tunnel, own domain—these thoughts, coming from the Chinese side as naturally suggested by the casy and amicable hushing up of the Chung-king difficulty, make one feel thankful that such a man as Sir John Walsham represents British interests at Poking, Probably the very best thing to do at this etage is to give China time to breathe. Let her feel that she is free, and, with all the facts now sufficiently before her, let her choose her own future policy uncorreed.
